MEHALECH HACHAIM CODE

- 1. Parents accept on themselves to inculcate into their children the need to act and speak in a courteous manner at all times.
- 2. Parents undertake not to allow their children to play in a house that has television or unsupervised access to the internet. Parents undertake to adhere to the directives of the local Rabbis in relation to the internet.
- 3. Children should not be exposed to films, visual or audio programmes which contain violence, swearing or nudity by way of DVD, CD, internet or any other means, in their own home or anywhere else.
- 4. Whilst we endorse and encourage games and sport amongst children, we do not endorse this developing into a bridge to the outside world of sport e.g. support of a team and/or adulating sports players. It follows that engaging with any type of sport insignia, stickers and/or cards is strictly forbidden.
- 5. Fathers' and boys' overall mode of hair-style, dress-style and colour will be in accordance with the Charedi ethos of the academy.
- 6. Fathers will normally wear a jacket and hat for every tefilla.
- 7. Mothers and daughters will dress modestly in accordance with the guidelines set out in Oz Vehodor Levushoh by Rabbi Falk zt"l.

DRESS CODE FOR MOTHERS

- 8. Skirts should be of required length that when sitting the knees are properly covered (as a guide 4" 10" below the knee).
- 9. Skirts should not have any slits at all (even below the knee).
- 10. Particular care must be taken, whether wearing snoods or sheitels, that ALL hair is covered at ALL times with no hair protruding as this is against the Code of Jewish Law.
- 11. Sheitels should not be too long (about shoulder length).
- 12. Clothing should not be tight-fitting.
- 13. No dark or bright nail polish should be worn.
- 14. Jewellery should be discreet and conservative; no large hoop earrings.
